

Dear First Priority Pest Control Customers,

We are happy to announce a new and exciting chapter for First Priority Pest Control. Viking Pest Control, an Award-Winning pest control company with offices here in York, PA, will assume full responsibility for our pest control business. Many of you may have already received service from a Viking Technician, as they have been working with us since June of 2023.

“Our customers will be in good hands with Viking Pest Control,” said Dan Dwyer of First Priority. “We are confident that our residential clients will receive the same high quality of service from Viking as they have come to expect from First Priority.”

“This is an exciting day for Viking Pest, and we are thrilled to be working with First Priority’s customers,” said Paul Bergmann, President of Viking Pest Control. “We appreciate the trust First Priority customers have placed in us, and we promise to continue to earn that trust with our award-winning service.”

Viking Pest Control offers high standards and dedication to effective pest control. First Priority customers transitioning to Viking can expect:

- Locally-based team members working out of York, PA
- Industry-leading Pest Management solutions with 40-plus years of tradition
- The Mid-Atlantic’s most trusted pest control company with national recognition from Forbes Home, The Spruce, Better Homes & Gardens, Real Simple, and more.
- Clear communication about services through e-mail, phone, and text

Questions about our partnership with Viking?

Scan to find answers
on our FAQ page.

We appreciate your support of the First Priority team over the years and hope you will support Viking.

If you require additional services or want to learn more, please visit vikingpest.com, or call us at 800-618-2847 for any service requests or questions on your account.

First Priority Pest Control has joined forces with Viking Pest Control.
See more on back.

